

FACILITATOR PROFILE

Lisa Sansom

Lisa Sansom is an Organizational Development Consultant, Corporate Trainer, Leadership Coach and professional facilitator, who has also been a teacher and worked in business development. Lisa is a skilled, approachable and organized facilitator who has a reputation for keeping groups and sessions on track, while still pivoting to meet the needs of the people in the groups, and creating open, safe and inspiring environments to help everyone learn, grow and thrive.

Lisa thrives on helping people learn through conversation, dialogue and collaborative sharing of ideas. She works from a basis of evidence based positive psychology, management and leadership research, behavioural economics, and organizational scholarship practices to help her clients be effective, supportive, healthy and well individually and collectively.

Lisa's clients span a wide range of industries and include organizations and coaching clients in the public, private and not-for-profit sectors. Committed to keeping the learning conversation flowing, Lisa believes that we all have a lot to learn from each other and that it's worth the effort to keep talking, listening, inquiring and sharing.

Lisa demonstrates professionalism, commitment and a positive attitude... a genuine interest in helping teams and encourages cooperation.
